THE HORNET

Requiem

The day to graduate has come their days in school soon o'er,
These walls will send their voices back this once and then no more.
Forgotten are their erstwhile cares
    their frolicking is hushed,
Adorn these halls no more they'll go with youthful spirits flushed.
Their books are closed, their problems done
    the final test is passed,
The long awaited day's soon here
    the saddest is the last.

Selected

Graduates of 1955:

For twelve years you have been laying the educational foundation of your life. It is hoped that you have studied much, learned well and developed certain essential skills. You should have mastered some of the principles of worthy living and democratic citizenship.

Your graduation is not in celebration of the completion of your high school days; rather, it should be the beginning of a new era for you. A dynamic life looks forward, not backward. There are many doors which will lead you to a life worthy of commendation. The knob on each of these doors is on your side--you must do the opening.

As you move forward to ever new and widening horizons, we challenge you to "make this world a bit better and more beautiful because you have lived in it".

Administration and Faculty

We, the Seniors of 1955, wish to dedicate our Hornet in memory of William H. Miller, Jr., who passed away in the year 1944.

SENIORS

The months and years have rolled swiftly by and that all-important date, commencement, has arrived for forty-one young men and women. Despite the gaiety of the occasion we are constantly reminded that there is something nostalgic about the whole thing and probably, if each Senior were to be absolutely honest, he would admit to acting a sentimental part.

As we reminisce, we are reminded that we are about to leave old friends, classmates, and teachers--whose friendship we have cause to value.

Speaking for all Seniors, may we express the wish that each one can go out into the world and take his place free from prejudice--free to co-operate with all people in an effort to make the world a more peaceful, harmonious, and gracious place in which to live.

The Hyndman Hornets of the 1954-55 season were faced with the task of equaling the feat of the 1953-54 team, inasmuch as the 53-54'ers won the District 5, Class C Championship. In the Inter-district play-off, District 6's Southmont defeated Hyndman. In individual scoring, Bruce May set a tri-state area record by amassing a total of 649 points.

On November 2, the call for candidates was issued by Coach Stoner, and when the first game was played on December 3, there were twenty-nine members on the Varsity and Junior-Varsity squad.

The high scorer for the team is Terry Rizer with 257 points and Charles Robosson has 212. Robosson is also the leading foul shooter with a .569 mark followed by Dennison with .530. As of February 14, the Hornets have swept the two game series with Rockwood, Smith, Carver, Salisbury, and the Alumni; split with Shade, Paw Paw, and Bedford; single wins over Mt. Savage and The West Virginia School of the Deaf; and a double loss to LaSalle. With this record of sixteen wins and six losses there are four more games to play. The complete schedule with scores to date is as follows:

Won 5 Lost 11

Class History of 1954-55

During our years together in Hyndman High School, we, the graduating class of 1955, have shared our joys as well as our sorrows. We've gained new classmates and to our regret have lost old classmates and friends.

Our Freshman Class of 1951-52 consisted of fifty-eight members. Our officers were: Judy Bowers, president; Patsy Diehl, vice-president; Sandy Thompson, secretary; and Jerry Emerick, treasurer. The activities were a hayride, ice cream parties, wiener roasts, and a Christmas party in which we decorated our room. Our activities were supervised by Mr. Beichler who left for the army and then replaced by Mrs. Kipp. Out of our Freshman class we lost Carolyn Thomas and James Rexrode. We had a new student, Betty Franks, to enter our class.

The Sophomore Class of 1952-53 started off with fifty-three members. Our class officers were: Terry Rizer, president; Fred Willison, vice-president; Janice Shaffer, secretary; Ray Martz, treasurer. This year we had two sponsors, Miss White who had the commercial students in her home room and Mr. Wilt who had the general and academic students in his home room. Our activities consisted of wiener roasts, ice cream parties, bake sales, and a Christmas party in which we decorated both home rooms. This was our first year in the new high school. We gained Delores Mallow, James Dewire, Melvin Boore, Charolotte Parks, and James Harden. The classmates to leave us were: Glenn Taylor, Effie Thomas, Charolotte Parks, Wayne Hyre, Sara Shirey, Jean Martz, Arthur Brant, George Severe, Donald Merkel, and Albert Larson.

We started our Junior Class of 1953-54 with forty-five students. Our sponsors and home room teachers were Mrs. Clark and Mr. Miller. The class officers were: Terry Rizer, president; Billie Shroyer, vice-president; Shirley Stair, secretary; and Jane Holler, treasurer. There were skating parties, bake sales, a Christmas party in which we decorated both rooms, and our biggest accomplishment, the Junior-Senior Prom. This year we gained one new student, Melvin Miller. The classmates who left us were Phyllis Spiker, Carroll Wilson, Harold Sherman, Naomi Browning, Richard Minnick, Frank Kisner, Bob Troutman, James Dewire, and James Harden.

Our Senior Class of 1954-55 consisted of forty-one members. Mr. McVicker was our class advisor and home room teacher. The officers were: Billie Shroyer, president; Judy Bowers, vice-president; Shirley Stair, secretary; and Jane Holler, treasurer. We had bake sales, skating parties, ice cream parties, and our Senior class play. But our biggest project was our yearbook, the "Hornet," which was an improvement over last year's and required hard work to accomplish. All of these activities through our high school years are toward our goal--our New York trip at the end of our Senior year. This year we have neither gained nor lost classmates.

If the remaining forty-one students all graduate, it will be the largest graduating class in Hyndman High School.

So we bid farewell to all our friends and look to the future with high hopes.

Last Will and Testament

The SENIOR CLASS of 1955, now in a state of comatose and about to pass into the realm of obscurity and demise doth hereby make and set forth this final documentary scroll in recognition of the necessary disposal of its physical assets and attributes and to make known the transmission of its various assortments, donations, and grants to the individual recipients as befitting them.

All such benevolences are made in a sound, compromising, and disposing mind and the aforesaid soon-decedent doth hereby revoke and declare void all previous bestowals that have, perhaps, been made in a less thoughtful light.

We, the Class of 1955, do now proclaim this final judgment to be our LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT and, which must, without recourse be sanctioned with just and upright confirmation. This over-all grant to be filtered and permeated to all corners of this school system, so that, it mayhap reach the appropriate donees and as such, is made a necessary requisite so that all future classes might gain some modicum of educational adjustment to wit:

RUTH ABERLE wills to GERTRUDE BEALS a carefully worded suggestion that she use wisely a tendency to gossip.

GARY BAKER will exchange with ROBERT SHROYER his stubbornness for a portion of the latter's desire to improve his education.

MELVIN BOORE donates freely to NILS JOHANNESSEN the ability of falling in and out of love successfully.

JUDITH BOWERS offers to MAXINE BURKETT her method of subdued and polite understanding without reverting to caustic remarks.

JOYCE BRUNER gives up to JOYCE SHOUP her class co-operation to be used with a minimum of complaining by the latter.

DARLENE COOK consigns to any JUNIOR girl her amazing recovery from a pessimist to an optimist.

ROSE MARIE COOK'S unrestrained giggling is deposited into any available escape-proof receptacle.

BEVERLY DIEHL'S pouting spells are assigned to LAVERNE IMLER to be filtered into a more congenial nature.

GERALD EMMERICK grants to GEORGE DENNISON his sneaky approach in the affairs of the heart.

WARREN GEISLER presents to FREEMAN MILLER his athletic build.

CAROLE HARCLERODE relinquishes to DONA SHAFFER the remaining gasoline in the family car for the purpose of getting where she is going.

JANE HOLLER surrenders, without recourse, her job as class treasurer to ALICE SHAFFER.

BRONYA HOLTZ'S unchanging good nature is assigned to FAIRY MILLER.

SANDRA HOLTZ unburdens herself of an outspoken nature to SARA ANN CHRISTNER hoping that said donation might be softened.

RICHARD HORNER'S listlessness in all things educational is committed to that of HOWARD SHAFFER'S hoping that said union may drop dead.

JANET HYATT bequeaths to JANE PFEIFFER a wee portion of zip in exchange for some of the latter's timidity.

DELORIS MALLOW hands over to NAOMI DENEEN her secretive nature and hidden talents.

KAY MANGES will pledge her gossip nature for a portion of HANNAH DENNISON'S suppressed desires.

RAY MARTZ will transmit to CHARLES HYRE the secret of being devilishly cute and still be angelic.

DONALD MAY will throw his weight around just enough so that RONALD JAMISON might acquire just enough to be as devilish as he looks.

JOYCE MILLER will furnish enough height to WILMA LOWERY in exchange for the latter's even disposition.

MELVIN MILLER (in absentia) will accept from EDISON RINGLER a few days of school, knowing the latter will not miss them.

JOHN MOORE turns over to ROBERT LEHMAN a complete transfusion of quiet repose.

GRETТА MOWRY will compare her asbestos-covered diary with that of ALICE DWIRE'S.

TERRY RIZER will cede to all JUNIOR boys his noble and heroic bearing.

IRENE M. SHAFFER leaves her namesake to IRENE N. SHAFFER much to the relief from confusion of those teachers who have both in the same class.

JANICE SHAFFER apportions her secretive ways and combustible nature to LULUBELLE LARSON.

JOAN SHAFFER leaves her determination to graduate to EMMA LEE GAUMER.

MARVA SHAFFER will accept from VIRGINIA WILLISON the secret of happiness in exchange for some of the donor's determination to succeed.

ROBERT SHAFFER imparts to JAMES BOWER enough studious approach to become a bona fide Senior.

BILLIE SHROYER will bestow her class presidency to MARY CLAPPER providing the latter sees fit to accept the accompanying headaches.

EARL SHROYER entrusts his misunderstood likeability to PAUL MARTZ.

SHIRLEY SHROYER deeds over to LEONA WILLISON the back seat in Room 108.

SYLVIA SHUMAKER will impart to SHIRLEY GIBBNER a list of Senior pitfalls to avoid.

SHIRLEY STAIR bestows her neatness to LULUBELLE EMERICK.

ELEANOR THOMAS will distribute her pleasant nature to MARLENE MILLER.

NEIL THOMAS will resign his dour outlook in all things to help minimize DONALD RIZER'S happy-go-lucky one.

SANDRA THOMPSON will leave any pessimism not eradicated by her to SYLVIA CARPENTER.

GLENDA WILHELM leaves to MARIE SHAFFER her quiet and unobtrusive bearing.

FRED and JESSE WILLISON leave their unsorted collection of laziness and procrastination to LEE SHROYER, who with RONALD STAHLMAN might remodel same to some goal in the near future.
